

DOCK RECEIPT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

DEFINITIONS: The terms "the warehouse man" and "the warehouse company" means BMI, Inc., the term "depositor" means the shipper, consignee, owner of the goods or its agents, including, but not limited to, persons who physically tender the goods to the warehouseman at the warehouseman's premises, motor carriers, motor freight brokers and drayman and/or any entity that places or maintains a chassis/trailer pool at the warehouseman's facility identified in this dock receipt. The term "equipment" means any chassis, container, trailer, or tractor. The term "storage" means the whole of the operations and services undertaken by the warehouseman with the respect to the goods. The term "goods" means the merchandise, cargo, property, or freight tendered for storage by the depositor and identified on the front page of the dock receipt. The term "yard storage" means the placement of containers or trailers, with or without tractors, empty or loaded with goods, secured or unsecured, in the yard of the warehouseman for the benefit of the depositor and/or the depositor's goods.

1.ACCEPTANCE: (a) This dock receipt and/or rate quotation, including accessorial charges endorsed on or attached hereto, must be accepted prior to tender of the goods to the warehouseman by signature of the depositor on the front page of this dock receipt. In the absence of written acceptance, the act of tendering goods described herein for storage or other services by the warehouseman shall constitute such acceptance by the depositor. (b) In the event that goods tendered for storage or other services do not conform to the description contained herein, or conforming goods are tendered after 30 days from the proposal date without prior written acceptance by the depositor as provided in sub-paragraph (a) of this section, the warehouseman may refuse to accept such goods. If the warehouseman accepts such goods, the depositor agrees to rates and charges as may be assigned and invoiced by the warehouseman and to all terms of the contract, (c) depositor agrees and warrants that the terms and conditions of this dock receipt shall apply to any and all instances of future storage by the depositor where the warehouseman has issued no dock receipt.

2.SHIPPING: The depositor shall not designate the warehouseman to be the consignee for any goods under any bill of lading, waybill, air waybill, or any other transportation contract. If, in violation of the terms and conditions of this dock receipt, goods are shipped to the warehouseman as named consignee, the depositor agrees to notify carrier in writing prior to such shipment, with copy of such notice to the warehouseman, that warehouseman named as consignee is a warehouseman and has no beneficial title or interest in such goods and the depositor further agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the warehouseman from any and all claims for unpaid transportation charges, including undercharges, demurrage, detention or charges of any nature, in connection with goods so shipped. The depositor further agrees that if it fails to notify carrier as required by the preceding sentence, the warehouseman shall have the right to refuse such goods and shall not be liable or responsible for any loss, injury or damage of any nature to, or related to, such goods.

3.TENDER FOR STORAGE: All goods shall be delivered at the warehouse properly marked and packaged for handling. At the time of such delivery, or prior thereto, the depositor shall furnish to the warehouseman a manifest showing marks, brands, or sizes to be kept and accounted for separately, and the class of storage and other services desired.

4.STORAGE PERIOD AND CHARGES: (a) All charges for storage are per package or other agreed unit, per month. (b) Storage charges commence upon the date that warehouse accepts care, custody and control of the goods, regardless of the unloading date or the date of issue of a dock receipt. (c) Except as provided in sub-paragraph (d) of this section, a full month's storage charge will apply on all goods received between the first and the fifteenth, inclusive, of a calendar month; one-half month's storage charge will apply on all goods received between the sixteenth and the last day, inclusive, of a calendar month, and a full month's storage charge will apply to all goods in storage on the first day of the next and succeeding calendar months. (d) When mutually agreed by the warehouseman and the depositor, a storage month shall extend from a date in one calendar month to, but not including, the same date of the next and all succeeding months. All storage charges are due and payable on the first day of the storage month.

5. TRANSFER, TERMINATION OF STORAGE, REMOVAL OF GOODS AND LEIN BY WAREHOUSEMAN: (a) Instructions to the warehouseman to transfer goods are not effective until delivered to and accepted by the warehouseman, and all charges up to the time transfer is made are chargeable to the depositor of record. If a transfer involves re-handling the goods, such re-handling will be subject to a charge. When goods in storage are transferred from one party to another through issuance of a new dock receipt, a new storage date is established on the date of transfer. (b) The warehouseman reserves the right to move, at his expense, fourteen days after notice is sent by certified or registered mail to the depositor of record or to the last known holder of the dock receipt, any goods in storage from the warehouse in which they may be stored to any other of his warehouses. But if such depositor or holder takes delivery of his goods in lieu of transfer, no storage charge shall be made for the current storage month. The warehouseman will store the goods at, and may without notice move the goods within and between, any one and more of the warehouse buildings that comprise the warehouse complex identified on the front of this dock receipt. (c) The warehouseman may, upon written notice to the depositor of record and any other person known by the warehouseman to claim an interest in the goods, require the removal of any goods by the end of the succeeding storage month. Such notice shall be given to the known place of business or residence of the person to be notified. If goods are not removed before the end of the next succeeding storage month, the warehouseman may sell them in accordance with applicable law. (d) If the warehouseman in good faith believes that the goods are about to deteriorate or decline in value to less than the amount of the warehouseman's lien before the end of the next succeeding storage month, the warehouseman may specify in the notification any reasonable shorter time for removal of the goods and in case the goods are not removed, may sell them at public sale held one week after a single advertisement or posting as provided by law. (e) If, as a result of a quality or condition of the goods of which the warehouseman had no notice at the time of deposit, the goods are a hazard to other property or to the warehouse or to any persons, the warehouseman may sell the goods at public or private sale without advertisement on reasonable notification to all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. If the warehouseman after a reasonable effort is unable to sell the goods, he may dispose of them in any lawful manner and shall incur no liability by reason of such disposition. Pending such disposition, sale, or return of the goods, the warehouseman may remove the goods from the warehouse and shall incur no liability by reason of such removal. (f) The warehouseman claims a lien for all lawful charges for storage and preservation of the goods and/or equipment; also, for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labor, weighing, cooping and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods, and for the balance on any other accounts that may be due. The warehouseman also claims a lien under the maritime law, if at any time these goods were subject to the BMI, Inc. bill of lading, and BMI, Inc. delivery invoice "Terms & Conditions of Service". The warehouseman reserves the right to exercise its lien rights under the terms of any applicable law and/or agreement between the depositor and the warehouseman. (g) THE GOODS COVERED BY THIS DOCK RECEIPT HAVE NOT BEEN INSURED BY THE WAREHOUSEMAN FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE DEPOSITOR AGAINST FIRE OR ANY OTHER CASUALTY, PROCUREMENT OF SUCH INSURANCE IS THE SOLE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE DEPOSITOR, AT THE DEPOSITOR'S SOLE DISCRETION AND EXPENSE.

6.HANDLING: (a) The Warehouse Reception charge covers the ordinary labor involved in receiving goods at the warehouse door and placing goods in storage. Warehouse Reception charges are due and payable on receipt of goods. (b) Unless otherwise agreed, labor for unloading and loading goods will be subject to a charge. Additional expenses incurred by the warehouseman in receiving and handling damaged goods, and additional expenses incurred in unloading from or loading into cars or other vehicles not at the warehouse door will be charges to the depositor. (c) Labor and materials used in loading rail cars or other vehicles are chargeable to the depositor. (d) When goods are ordered but in quantities less than those in which received, the warehouseman may make an additional charge for each order or each item of an order (Segregation charges). (e) The warehouseman shall not be liable for demurrage or detention, delays in unloading inbound cars, trailers, or other containers, or delays in obtaining and loading cars, trailers, or other containers for outbound shipment unless the warehouseman has failed to exercise reasonable care.

7.DELIVERY REQUIREMENTS: (a) No goods shall be delivered or transferred except upon receipt by the warehouse of complete written instructions. Written instructions shall include, but are not limited to, facsimile transmissions, Electronic Data Interchange (EDI), e-mail, or similar communications provided the warehouseman has no liability when relying on the information contained in the communication as received. However, when no dock receipt is outstanding, goods may be delivered upon instruction by telephone, in accordance with a prior written authorization, but the warehouseman shall not be responsible for loss or error occasioned thereby. (b) When goods are ordered out, a reasonable time shall be given the warehouseman to carry out instructions, and if he is unable to do so because of acts of God, war, public enemies, seizure under legal process, strikes, lockouts, riots and civil commotions, or any reason beyond the warehouseman's control, or because of the loss or destruction of goods for which warehouseman is not liable, or because of any other excuse or justification provided by law, the warehouseman shall not be liable for failure to carry out such instructions and goods remaining in storage will continue to be subject to regular storage charges.

8.EXTRA SERVICES/SPECIAL SERVICES: (a) Warehouse labor required for services other than ordinary handling and storage will be charged to the depositor. (b) Special services by depositor including, but not limited to, compiling of special stock statements, reporting marked weights, serial numbers or other data from packages, physical checking of goods, and handling transit billing will be subject to a charge. (c) Dunnage, bracing, packaging materials or other special supplies may be provided to the depositor at a charge in addition to the warehouseman's cost. (d) By prior arrangement, goods may be received or delivered other than during usual business hours, subject to a charge. (e) Communication expenses, including postage, teletype, telegram, or telephone will be charged to the depositor if such expenses concern more than normal inventory reporting or if, at the request of the depositor, communications are made other than regular United States mail.

9.MINIMUM CHARGES: (a) Goods are subject to a minimum handling charge per lot and a minimum storage charge per lot per month. When a dock receipt covers more than one lot or when a lot is in assortment, the goods will be subject to a minimum charge per mark, brand, or variety. (b) A minimum monthly charge to one account for storage and/or handling will be made. This charge will apply also to each account when one customer has several accounts each requiring separate records and billing.

10.LIABILITY AND LIMITATION OF DAMAGES: (a) The warehouseman shall not be liable for any loss or injury to goods stored, however caused, unless such loss or injury resulted from the failure by the warehouseman to exercise reasonable care and the warehouseman is not liable for damages that could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care. (b) Goods are not insured by the warehouseman against loss or injury, however caused. (c) The depositor declares that damages are limited to $0.01 per pound, subject to a limited of fifty dollars ($50.00) per dock receipt per occurrence; provided, however, that such liability may at the time of acceptance of the contract, as provided in section 1, be increased upon depositor's written request on part or all of the goods hereunder in which event an additional monthly charge will be made based upon such increased valuation. (d) Where loss or injury occurs to stored goods for which the warehouseman is not liable, the depositor shall be responsible for the cost of removing and disposing of such goods and the cost of any environmental clean-up and site remediation resulting from the loss or injury to the goods. (e) In no event shall the warehouse company be liable or responsible for consequential, indirect, incident, statutory or punitive damages, including but not limited any set-offs or charge backs from depositors/customers, even if the warehouse company has been put on notice of the possibility of such damage.

11.ARBITRATION: (a) The warehouseman and depositor agree, on behalf of themselves and their respective heirs, assigns, and/or subrogees, agree that any dispute arising out or in any way connected to this Agreement shall be submitted to the American Arbitration Association for an arbitration under the then-current rules. The parties agree to arbitrate any and all disputes exclusively in the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana. The parties agree that the arbitration decision shall be binding and final. Either party may enter such decision in any federal or state court of competent jurisdiction in the Parish of Orleans. Any arbitration shall be held in the City of New Orleans. (b) The depositor expressly agrees that the time for commencement of such arbitration proceedings by the depositor against the warehouseman must be within six (6) months after date of delivery of the goods by the warehouseman or within six (6) months after the depositor of record or the last know holder of a dock receipt is notified that loss or injury to part or all of the goods has occurred, whichever time is shorter – all proceeding commenced thereafter being time-barred, however founded.

12.NOTICE OF CLAIM AND COMMENCEMENT OF ARBITRATION: (a) Claims by the depositor and all other persons must be presented in writing to the warehouseman within a reasonable time, and in no event longer than either 60 days after delivery of the goods by the warehouseman or 60 days after the depositor of record or the last know holder of a dock receipt is notified by the warehouseman that loss or injury to part or all of the goods has occurred, whichever time is shorter. (b) Neither the depositor nor any other person/party may commence arbitration against the warehouseman for loss or injury to the goods stored unless timely written claim has been given as provided in sub-paragraph (a) of this section. (c) When goods have not been delivered, notice may be given of known loss or injury to the goods by mailing of a registered or certified letter to the depositor of record or to the last know holder of a dock receipt. Time limitations for presentation of claim in writing and commencing an arbitration after notice begin on the date of mailing of such notice by the warehouseman.

13.NO LIABILITY FOR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES: The warehouseman shall not be liable for any loss of profit or special, indirect, or consequential damages of any kind.

14.LIABILITY FOR MIS-SHIPMENT: If the warehouseman negligently mis-ships goods. The warehouseman shall pay the reasonable transportation charge incurred to return the mis-shipped goods to the warehouse. If the consignee fails to return the goods, the warehouseman's maximum liability shall be for the lost or damaged goods, as specified in Section 10 above, and the warehouseman shall have no liability for damages due to the consignee's acceptance or use of the goods, whether such goods be those of the depositor or another.

15.MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE: The warehouseman shall not be liable for loss of goods due to inventory shortage or shortage, or unexplained or mysterious disappearance of goods, unless the depositor establishes that such loss occurred because of the warehouseman's failure to exercise the care required for warehouseman under Section 10 above. Any presumption of conversion imposed by law shall not apply to such loss, and a claim by the depositor of conversion must be established by affirmative evidence that the warehouseman converted the goods to the warehouseman's own use.

16.RIGHT TO STORE GOODS: The depositor represents and warrants that the depositor is lawfully possessed of the goods and has the right and authority to store them with the warehouseman. The depositor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the warehouseman from all loss, cost and expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees that warehouseman pays or incurs as a result of any dispute or litigation, whether instituted by the warehouseman or others, respecting depositor's right, title or interest in the goods. Such amounts shall be charges in relation to the goods and subject to the warehouseman's lien.

17.ACCURATE INFORMATION: The depositor will provide the warehouseman with information concerning the stored goods that is accurate, complete, and sufficient to allow the warehouseman to comply with all laws and regulations concerning the storage, handling, and transporting of the goods. The depositor will indemnify and hold the warehouseman harmless from all loss, cost, penalty and expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees that the warehouseman pays or incurs as a result of depositor failing to fully discharge this obligation.

18.SEVERABILITY AND WAIVER: (a) If any provision of the dock receipt or any application thereof, should be construed or held to be void, invalid or unenforceable, by order, decree, or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of the dock receipt shall not be affected thereby but shall remain in full force and effect. (b) The warehouseman's failure to require strict compliance with any provision of the dock receipt shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel to later demand strict compliance with that or any other provision(s) of this dock receipt. (c) The provisions of this dock receipt shall be binding upon the depositor's heirs, executors, successors and assigns. Those provisions contain the sole agreement governing goods stored with the warehouseman, and they cannot be modified except by a writing signed by the warehouseman.

19.YARD STORAGE: The liability of the warehouseman for any yard storage of containers or trailers, whether loaded or empty, secured or unsecured, shall be subject to Sections 10, 11, and 12 of this dock receipt. By tendering container or trailers to the warehouseman for yard storage, the depositor agrees and warrants that the warehouseman's premises are deemed to have reasonable level of security for the yard storage.

20.CONSTRUCTION OF TERMS: The terms and conditions of this dock receipt shall be construed and interpreted under the laws of the State of Louisiana, except when a law of the United States, convention, treaty, or other law is otherwise compulsorily applicable.
